

CALL FOR PAPERS

10th International Student Byron Conference

22-27 May 2015

The Messolonghi Byron Society
Messolonghi Byron Research Center, Greece

Topic: "Byron and the Mediterranean World"

The Messolonghi Byron Research Center welcomes proposals for 20-minute papers to be delivered at the 10th International Student Byron Conference, to be held at Messolonghi and Delphi, May 22-27, 2015. Presentations might center on Byron as traveler in the Mediterranean world and/or as poet writing about the Mediterranean world or on various aspects of the Mediterranean world in Byron's time. Studies of Byronic texts whose bicentennials will occur in 2015 would also be highly appropriate.

Presenters at the conference will span all academic levels from undergraduates through graduate students, postdoctoral fellows, and faculty members.

Along with academic sessions and keynote lectures by Professor Caroline Franklin and Professor Naji Oueijan, the International Student Byron Conference will include a diverse array of cultural activities to celebrate the 10 years of its existence, such as a round-table discussion featuring alumni of the first International Student Byron Conference and various excursions. The conference fee of 550 euros for double and 650 for single accommodation will include 5 nights' lodging at the Theoxenia Hotel (B/B), registration, all activities, and many meals.

Proposals should be sent by email to Professor Peter Graham (pegraham@vt.edu), Dr. Maria Schoina (schoina@enl.auth.gr), and Mrs. Rodanthi-Rosa Florou, President of the International Byron Research Center (byronlib@teimes.gr) by January 30, 2015.
